

SUMMER CAMP 2016 IN GERMANY
IN COOPERATION WITH PARTNER ORGANISATIONS FROM ALBANIA, BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA, CROATIA, MONTENEGRO, POLAND AND SERBIA.

“Summer Camp 2016 – European Youth for Peace: Creating a United Tomorrow”

Aim

To spend three extraordinary weeks together and promote active citizenship, anti-discrimination, human rights, Europe and border crossing youth work.

When does the Summer Camp take place?

From 1 to 21 August 2016

Who will participate?

15 to 16-year-old girls and boys from all regions of Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina (BiH), Croatia, Germany, Poland, Montenegro, and Serbia. Altogether, 40 young people and 9 team counsellors will participate.

“The participants will come from two European regions, both of which have gone through a time of conflict and war. In the case of the Central European countries, the memories are still present, but the relations between Germany and its Eastern and Western neighbours are now mostly trustful and positive, in particular among young people. In the case of the Western Balkans, the wounds are fresher and the strained relations, both within and between those countries, still need some ongoing effort to re-establish a supportive and cooperative neighbourhood.”

Where does the Summer Camp take place?

At the Youth Hostel in Bad Honnef near Bonn. (www.bad-honnef.jugendherberge.de) The Youth Hostel is located on the east side of the Rhine River overseeing the town of Bad Honnef with direct access to a nature reserve. The rooms are modern. The house has many facilities for indoor and outdoor activities. Three daily meals – breakfast, lunch and supper – are provided. Special food requests (religious, allergy and vegetarian diets) will be met.

Travel

- Participants from Southeast Europe by plane
- Participants from Central Europe by car or bus, train or plane, whatever is more economical

What can participants expect?

- Sports activities (volleyball, basketball, table tennis, swimming)
- Outdoor activities (raft-building and rafting, climbing, orienteering, adventure games)

- Excursions: Bonn (Haus der Geschichte/history museum); Cologne (Roman history, world heritage places)
- Creative productive workshops: percussion/music, theatre, LandArt, dance, video, newspaper, press conference
- Discussions: the situation of young people in the participating countries / Europe / Human Rights / Active Citizenship / Get Active / Border crossing youth work

Team of Counsellors

- Camp leadership and counsellors from all participating countries will be present throughout the Summer Camp.
- Experts will be engaged for workshops and discussion rounds, in addition to the team of counsellors.

What is expected of the participants?

- Cheerfulness!
- A good knowledge of English!
- A desire to take an active part in the camp!
- Readiness to be open, fair, social and tolerant!
- Team work!
- Adherence to the strict German laws on youth protection in regard of smoking and alcohol!

“As in previous years, the young people from all those countries are given the chance to gain first-hand experience from their ‘camp mates’, to question stereotypes and to discover that what they share may be more important than what divides them. If successful, the Summer Camp will begin with seven national groups, but will end with just one large community.”

Insurance

For all participants and counsellors insurance will be taken out to cover accident, personal liability and health care.

Costs

Travel costs (except for travel inside the home country), food, accommodation and expenses for all programme elements will be covered by CAMPUS15.

What are the next steps?

- We confirm the receipt of your application as soon as we have it. Usually we have more applicants than we have places at the camp.

We will inform you by mid-April 2016, whether your application has been accepted or not.

- With the letter of acceptance you will receive detailed information on the journey to and from the camp, how to prepare for the camp and the camp itself.

Applicants should note that this Summer Camp may be followed up by a Reunion Camp in one of the Western Balkan countries in the summer of 2017, as has been our practice since 2001.

What is “CAMPUS15 – Youth Goes for Peace”?

“CAMPUS15 – Youth Goes for Peace” is a registered non-profit organization that is politically and denominationally independent. Its members are all volunteers. CAMPUS15 enables young people who come from areas of (former) conflict to meet and spend time together in a supportive environment. Young people of different nationalities, ethnic backgrounds or creeds are given the opportunity to interact in a positive way, together with Germans and other young Central Europeans.

CAMPUS15 has been bringing young Europeans together since 1998. So far, we have organised eleven Summer Camps in Germany and nine Reunion Camps in former Yugoslavia and Poland. Our activities were usually supported by YOUTH IN ACTION, a programme of the European Union, and the by the Youth Welfare Office of North Rhine-Westphalia.

In 2009 CAMPUS15 has been awarded with the European Civic-Prize of the European Parliament.

The Summer Camp 2016 is supported by the European “Erasmus+: Youth in Action” Programme.
